

Aran's Forest Adventure

Use the pictures to fill in the blanks in the story. Then find out how Aran the Asian elephant spends his day!

Aran the elephant was ready for a fun day in the forest! He traveled in his herd with his mom,  _____ and cousins. Because they were going to a new part of the forest today, Aran used his trunk to hold onto his mom's  _____ so he wouldn't get lost.

As the herd walked through the forest, Aran's cousin, Kamala, used her trunk like a  _____ to grab some branches and swat them at Aran. Aran laughed and promised to get her back later!

Soon everyone was hungry and the herd decided to  _____ for lunch. Aran's mom and aunts ate  _____ and  _____ bark, but Aran's favorite food was the high grass. Mmmm, yummy!

After lunch, they went to a watering hole to drink some  _____. Aran's mom used her trunk to spray herself with mud and protect her skin from the hot  _____. Aran filled his trunk with water and sprayed Kamala when she wasn't looking. Kamala laughed and they had a fun water fight!

Later, they passed a very hungry  _____. Aran was afraid of tigers, but his whole herd made a  _____ around him for protection. The tiger gave up and left to find more food. Hooray! Aran was safe with his family!