

Enforcement of Poaching Control and Bushmeat Trade in and Around WAZA National Park—Cameroon

The Poaching Control project at Waza National Park in Cameroon will focus on reinforcing controls against poaching and the illegal bushmeat trade in and around the Park. The project serves to reduce imminent risks to elephant populations from increased human encroachment and poaching in the Park.