

Kalama Community Wildlife Conservancy: Community Conservation of Elephants in Northern Kenya

The Kalama Community Wildlife Conservancy's project will provide protection to elephants within Kalama, Kenya, by ensuring safe access to critical migration routes and resources. Local communities will benefit from this project through monitoring and management of natural resources, as well as the development of outreach and awareness projects in Kalama schools.