

Lake George Marine Ranger Station: The Waterways Project—Uganda

The Waterways project, led by the Lake George Marine Ranger Station, will reduce poaching in the Southern Queen Elizabeth Conservation Area in Uganda with new boats for patrolling the area. Strict enforcement of the law, research and community conservation will benefit the elephants and other wildlife in the region.